

English Advanced.

Explore, discuss and critique the real and imagined worlds of text creators.

ATAR - BOARD DEVELOPED - CATEGORY A

About the Course

Students in Advanced English engage in complex texts that explore complex ideas and themes communicated through a range of sophisticated and deliberate forms, features and structures. When you study Advanced English you consider how texts are shaped and reshaped by time to create a critical response to texts echoed by a personal voice and informed by a strong understanding of how meaning is created. Find out more here.

What You Will Do

You will engage in a range of text experiences including poetry, prose fiction, Shakespearean drama, and a range of shorter, multi-modal text types. English (Advanced) is a time-intensive subject. We spend time engaging critically with texts, discussing universal ideas, and exploring how creators of texts make meaning. There is a high level of reading, textual analysis, and writing analytically, reflectively and creatively required.

Future Opportunities

All of them! English (Advanced) will help prepare you for future study after school. Specific careers include: Journalism, Law, Sociology, Teaching, Marketing, Public Relations, Media, Research, History, Politics, Novel Writing.

